WINTER CABIN TRIP

When: Saturday, January 23rd to Sunday, January 24th

Highlights: One of our favorite annual events, the Winter Snow & Cabin Trip, will be held at Camp Bullowa in Stony Point, NY, located in the Hudson Valley. Camp overnight in a heated cabin. On Saturday have some great winter fun: sledding, ice skating, snowshoeing, building a snow fortress, going on a winter hike, or winter snow stalking. Saturday lunch will be cooked outdoors on a Coleman stove; dinner will be cooked outdoors as well but on a fire ring. In the evening, go sledding by lantern light! Then warm up by a blazing campfire or go inside by the pot belly stove and enjoy hot chocolate, popcorn and other treats while playing board games and other activities with your fellow scouts. After breakfast on Sunday, go sledding or skating again for a couple of hours before heading for home.

Venture Scouts : You have the option to go with the Troop or experience the yearly Snow Trek : Snow shoe with your backpack to a remote outpost and build a snow shelter and sleep in it. (See separate Venture Flyer)

Depart: Saturday, 8:00 am from the lot across from the First United Methodist Church.

Return: Approximately 2:00 pm Sunday at the Troop Garage – parents will be called.
